ORDER STAYING CASE NINETY (90) DAYS

WHERE AS, this matter having come before the Court on Defendant P.A. Jindal's Emergency Motion to stay proceedings; the parties having been lead to believe the instant claim was covered by a professional liability insurance policy issued to Defendant P.A. Jindal by Tehum Care Services, Inc., d/b/a Corizon Health, Inc.; Corizon Health, Inc. having declared bankruptcy on or about February 13, 2023; the bankruptcy filing calling into question the continued viability of Corizon to act as Defendant's professional liability carrier; the uncertainty regarding the professional liability coverage having created as the very least a potential conflict of interest in CHAPMAN LAW GROUP's continued representation of P.A. Jindal; and the Court being otherwise fully advised of the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, the above captioned matter is Stayed ninety (90) days from the entry of this Order to allow the Bankruptcy Court to make a determination as to viability of the professional liability coverage applicable to P.A. Jindal and to allow P.A. Jindal to retain private counsel to advise her on her rights in the above discussed situation.

This is not a final order and does not close the case.

Dated: February 27, 2023

Hon. Anthony P. Patti
United States Magistrate Judge
